Dear Mr. Casali,

Our IT Department has now done a further search based on your modified FOIL request.

While using the current search terms indicated in your latest request would implicate only 720 documents, that would also result in approximately 30,000 pages of materials (which I anticipate would take a minimum of 6 months to review).

Were your search limited, for example, to "authentic campaigns" however, that would yield approximately 193 documents consisting of approximately 800 pages (which I anticipate would take approximately 2+ months).

Obviously, the more search terms you include, the more documents and pages that is likely to yield, resulting in correspondingly lengthy searches.

Please let me know if you would like to proceed.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
